

POLITECNICO
MILANO 1863

Oncological pathology and long survivals
Quantitative evaluation of limbs affected by lymphedema and their recovery after specific rehabilitative treatments

Polisocial Award

Oncological pathology and long survivals

Quantitative evaluation of limbs affected by lymphedema and their recovery after specific rehabilitative treatments

Instruments and methods for the volume measure of upper limbs affected by lymphedema and quantitative functional limitation assessment during daily life movements. Lymphedema represents one of the most frequent breast cancer side effect complication related to the lymphnode surgical dissection.

Referent: MANUELA GALLI

E-mail: manuela.galli@polimi.it

Partner: Politecnico di Milano (Dipartimento di Elettrotecnica, Informazione e Bioingegneria), Fondazione IRCCS Istituto Nazionale dei Tumori di Milano.